Closing out 2022-2023 Financial Books

The Executive Committee, with guidance from our State Financial Consultant, Business Officer, and Finance Office Director and Assistant Director close out the financial books, including budget amendments. All members will be provided with a report at the next board meeting.

Motion will be needed to grant the Executive Committee such authority.