General

The Board shall not discriminate on the basis of race, color, religion, sex, national origin, or disability in its instructional program or activities.[1] Discrimination shall include antisemitism, defined as a certain perception of Jews, which may be expressed as hatred toward Jews including, but not limited to, rhetorical and physical manifestations of antisemitism directed toward Jewish or non-Jewish individuals and/or their property, toward Jewish community institutions and religious facilities.[2]

The Board approves the following broad-based instructional goals for students:

- To acquire the knowledge and attitude necessary to achieve and maintain good physical and mental health;
- To develop the skills necessary to function as a self-directed person;
- To develop the capacity to cope with change through an understanding of the arts, humanities and scientific processes;
- To know the principles involved in making moral and ethical choices;
- To develop the basic skills of reading, writing, computation, spelling, speaking and problem solving;
- To develop a positive attitude toward learning as a lifelong endeavor;
- To learn to identify personal talents and interests, make appropriate career choices, and develop career skills;
- To acquire knowledge and to develop skills in the management of personal and public resources necessary for meeting obligations to self, family and society;
- To learn to act in a responsible manner;
- To learn of the rights and responsibilities of citizens of the community, state, nation and world; and

- To learn to understand, respect and interact with people of different cultures, generations and races.
