Closing out 2023-2024 Financial Books

The Executive Committee, with guidance from our State Financial Consultant, Business Officer, Finance Office Director and Assistant Director, will close out the financial books, including budget amendments. All members will be provided with a report at the next board meeting.

Motion will be needed to grant the Executive Committee such authority.